Cap. 79:04

Revenue Authority

“member” means a member of the Governing Board appointed under section 11;

“revenue” means taxes, duties, fees, levies, fines and other monies charged or collected pursuant to such laws as the Minister may by order specify under section 10 (1);

“Secretary” means the Secretary of the Authority appointed under section 22.

(2) Wherever in this Act reference is made to the property, rights, liabilities and obligation of the Departments, such reference shall be read and construed as a reference to the property, rights, liabilities and obligations of the Government, in so far as such property, rights, liabilities and obligations relate to the Departments.

PART II

DISENGAGEMENT OF DEPARTMENT OF INLAND REVENUE AND OF CUSTOMS AND INCIDENTAL MATTERS

Disengagement of Departments.

3. When the Minister is satisfied that all necessary arrangements have been made for disengagement of the Departments from the Government, he shall issue the order under section 1 bringing this Act into operation.

Transfer of assets and liabilities of Departments to Authority.

4. (1) On the appointed date there shall be transferred to, and vest in, or subsist against the Authority by virtue of this Act and without further assurance—

(a) the affairs of the Departments; and

(b) subject to this Act, all property, rights, liabilities and obligations which immediately before the appointed date were the property, rights, liabilities and obligations of the Departments.

(2) Except as provided in this Act, every deed, bond or agreement (other than an agreement for personal service) to which either of the Department was a party immediately before the appointed date, whether in writing or not, and whether or not of such nature that rights, liabilities and obligations thereunder could be assigned, shall, unless its subject-matter or terms make it impossible that it should have effect as modified in the manner provided by this subsection, have effect as from the date of the assignment thereof, as if---

(a) the Authority had been a party therein;

(b) for any reference to either of the Departments there were substituted, as respects anything falling to be done on or after the appointed date, a reference to the Authority;

(c) for any reference to any officer of either of the Department not being a party thereto and beneficially interested therein there were substituted as respects anything falling to be done on or after the appointed date, a reference to such officer of the Authority as the Governing Board shall designate.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), documents other than those referred to in that subsection which refer specifically or generally to either of the Departments shall be construed in accordance with the said subsection as far as applicable.

5. Where under this Act, any property, rights, liabilities or obligations of either of the Departments are deemed transferred in respect of which transfer any written law provides for registration, the Department concerned shall make an application in writing to the appropriate authority for the registration of such transfer and such authority shall make such entries in the appropriate register as shall give effect to such transfer and where appropriate, issue to the transferee concerned a certificate of title in respect of the said property or make necessary amendments to the register, as the case may be, and if preented therefor, make endorsement on the deeded relating to the title, right or obligation concerned and no registration fee, stamp duty or other duties shall be payable in respect of it.

Registration of property transferred by Departments.

6. (1) Before the appointed date, the Government shall notify such of the employees of the Departments as it wishes to retain for the purpose of transfer to the Authority and such employees shall be engaged on terms and conditions in relation to their emoluments as may be agreed upon between the Authority and the person so employed and, which taken as a whole are no less favourable than those applicable to him immediately before that date and shall in respect of any person so employed be the successor of the Government with regard to his leave or superannuation rights or benefits whether accrued, earned, inchoate or contingent.

Employees Departments.

LAWS OF GUYANA

(2) Employees not engaged under subsection (1) shall, before the appointed date, be notified to that effect by the Government and may be retained by the Government.

Legal proceedings.

7. (1) Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Act where any right, liability or obligation vests in, or subsists against the Authority by virtue of this Act, the Authority and all other persons affected thereby shall, as from the appointed date, have the same rights, powers and remedies and in particular the same rights as to the instituting or defending of legal proceedings or the making or resisting of applications to any authority) for ascertaining, perfecting or enforcing that right, liability or obligation as they would have had if it had at all times been a right, liability or obligation of the Authority.

(2) All legal proceedings and claims which before the appointed date are pending in respect of revenue, to which the laws specified by the Minister under section 10 apply, shall be continued or enforced by or against the Authority in the same manner as they would have been continued or enforced if this Act had not been enacted.

(3) After the appointed date, proceedings in respect of any right, liability or obligation which was vested in, held, enjoyed, incurred, suffered by, or subsisted against either of the Departments may be instituted by or against the Authority.

References to Commissioner of Comptroller.

8. On or after the appointed date, references in any written law or any other legal document to the Commissioner of Inland Revenue or the Comptroller of Customs shall be read and construed as references to the Commissioner-General of the Authority:

Provided that the Commissioner-General may delegate to any officer of the Authority such of his duties as he deems fit.
